

Are you ready to:

- Make lifelong friends?
- Travel to exciting convention cities?
- Perform for crowds of peers and fellow comrades?

Then sign up for the Band/Color Guard competitions!

Why Join Us?

- Skill Development
- Performance Opportunities
 - Travel
 - Comradery
- Be part of the competitions history that have been apart of The American Legion since its first two decades of inception.

Who Can Join?

- Member of The American Legion Family
 - Member of a JROTC program
 - Member of a post or community band
- A mixture of the above American Legion “family” can participate in all classes in the color guard contest except for the Military Class, which must consist of American Legion members exclusively.

How to Join?

- Visit www.legion.org/convention/contests for the link to the virtual forms.
- Contact the Convention Office at ConventionDivision@legion.org
- Contact Chief Judge Dave Priester at dlpriester@gmail.com

Join us & be part of history to be the next potential champion at The American Legion National Convention with your Uniformed Group!

For more information, visit www.legion.org/convention/contests